

SESSION 1 SPRING 2019

TH200 Introduction to Christian Theology - TBD, Instructor
offered Mondays 6-9:30 PM (Jan7-Feb4) and Wednesday 8-11:30 AM (Jan9-Feb6)

This course will examine specific doctrines such as the person of God, salvation, the church and eschatology. The student will also survey the tasks, benefits and challenges of theology.

OT100 Old Testament History - Dr. Michael Pabarcus, Instructor
offered Thursdays 6-9:30 PM (Jan10-Feb7)

This course is a study of the origin and development of the nation of Israel in the Old Testament from creation to the return from Babylonian captivity. Special attention is given to placing the prophetic books in their historical context.

SESSION 2 SPRING 2019

TH210 Introduction to Biblical Interpretation - Dr. Michael Pabarcus, Instructor
offered Mondays 6-9:30 PM (Feb25-Mar25) and Wednesdays 8-11:30 AM (Feb27-Mar27)

This class surveys past and present approaches to interpreting the Bible. Students will learn guidelines for interpreting specific literary genres and forms of speech, along with practical strategies for personal Bible study.

NT100 New Testament History - Don Sanders, Instructor
offered Thursdays 6-9:30 PM (Feb28-Mar28)

This course covers three primary periods of biblical history: inter-testamental history, the life of Christ, and early church history as presented in the book of Acts. Special attention is given to the placement of the New Testament books within the historical context of Acts.

SESSION 3 SPRING 2019

PH200 Survey of World Views - Don Sanders, Instructor
offered Mondays 6-9:30 PM (Apr15-May13) and Wednesdays 8-11:30 AM (Apr17-May15)

This class introduces students to the historical development of significant world views. Topics include theism, deism, naturalism, nihilism, existentialism, and pantheism. Students will also learn specific strategies for sharing their faith across views.

NT110 Teachings of Jesus - TBD, Instructor
offered Thursdays 6-9:30 PM (Apr18-May16)

A proper understanding of the teachings of Jesus is essential for growing discipleship. Topics include the major teachings of each of the four gospels. Special attention is given to Jesus' teaching on discipleship, salvation, and parables.

Interested in enrolling in a class? Apply online at themeroldinstitute.org. Questions, call (636) 928-7651x107 or email institute@harvesterchristian.org.

SESSION 1 FALL 2018

CH200 Survey of the History of Christianity -

Dr. Michael Pabarcus, Instructor

offered Mondays 6-9:30 PM (Aug27-Oct1) and Wednesday 8-11:30 AM (Aug29-Sept26)

This class covers the growth and expansion of Christianity from the end of Acts through present day. Attention is given to significant personalities, development of doctrine, and pivotal events.

BI100 History & Development of the Bible - Don Sanders, Instructor

offered Thursdays 6-9:30 PM (Aug30-Sept27)

This course is a study of the origin and development of the nation of Israel in the Old Testament from creation to the return from Babylonian captivity. Special attention is given to placing the prophetic books in their historical context.

SESSION 2 FALL 2018

CH210 History & Mission of the Restoration Movement -

Don Sanders, Instructor

offered Mondays 6-9:30 PM (Oct15-Nov12) and Wednesday 8-11:30 AM (Oct17-Nov14)

This course will examine specific doctrines such as the person of God, salvation, the church and eschatology. The student will also survey the tasks, benefits and challenges of theology.

BI110 Survey of the Bible - Kent Sanders, Instructor

offered Thursdays 6-9:30 PM (Oct18-Nov15)

This course is a study of the origin and development of the nation of Israel in the Old Testament from creation to the return from Babylonian captivity. Special attention is given to placing the prophetic books in their historical context.